Thank you for your interest in my apple picking graph worksheet!

This activity serves as a great introduction on what a bar graph is and how it can be used to find the solution to question or problem!

You and your child will have so much fun working on this together! Enjoy and happy fall ya’ll!
How many red apples did you pick? _______________

How many yellow apples did you pick? _______________

How many green apples did you pick? _______________

How many apples do you have total? _______________

What apple color is your favorite? _______________